

When My Baby Smiles

WHEN that slow, sweet smile spreads over my baby's plump little face and his bright eyes almost disappear in one tremendous chuckle, I am the happiest woman alive.

Because I know, you see, that a baby only smiles like that when he is well—when his little stomach is digesting his food perfectly, when he is on the happy way to health.

I can hardly believe he is the same baby who used to have so much trouble with the curds of milk all through those long weary days when I first found I couldn't nurse him.

We knew he had to have milk in some form—and I bless the day when we found that Nestlé's Milk Food is better for a baby's stomach and easier to digest than any other form of milk.

You see, in Nestlé's the tough milk curds are broken up and made easier to digest. Then they add cereal and sugar—so when you add water and boil you have everything your baby needs for healthy growth.

I know the Nestlé Company will be glad to help you as they helped me if you will fill out and send the coupon below. They will send you free, enough Nestlé's Food for twelve feedings, and a Mother's Book by specialists on how to take care of your baby. They want your baby to smile, too!

Nestlé's is pure milk in powder form that is already modified and does not require the further addition of anything. Always pure and safe, always uniform, and free from the dangers of home modification, Nestlé's has stood the test of three generations and has today the largest sale of any baby food in the world.

FREE! Enough Nestlé's for 12 feedings. Send the coupon!

Hill with a basket of pheasants, which are to be hatched out at Mr. Butler's.

At a session of the town court on Monday morning, Judge W. F. Woodward imposed a fine of $25 and costs, amounting to a total of $34.75 in each case, the minimum allowed under the statute, on William Laroché, of Moosup, and Earl Gay of this town. The men were charged with having driven motor vehicles at a reckless rate of speed on the highway between Dayville and Danielson late Saturday night. The men pleaded guilty to driving in excess of 30 miles an hour, which was regarded as speeding under the law.

The prosecution of Laroché and Gay is in line with the automobile department's intention to stop speeding of motor cars on the highways in this section, especially cars, many of them public service, running between Danielson and Wildwood park.

The Goodyear Cotton Mills, Inc., announced Monday that they have arranged to dispose of their property, a quantity of their 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock of the company.

Employees are to be permitted to buy this stock at par, $100 a share, and to pay for it on the installment plan, at the rate of $10 a month. Employees of the concern will be canvassed during a ten days' drive and the value of the offering made to them fully explained. For every year that an employee who owns stock remains with the concern he will be allowed a bonus of 3 per cent, so the investment thus becoming one of the most profitable to the workers.

Some time ago the Goodyear operatives of this town were told that the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, the parent concern, on a very liberal basis, and a large block of shares was subscribed.

Another approaching event that is of interest to the Goodyear operatives is the fifth annual outing, scheduled for next Saturday. Several hundred will make the trip to Greenwood park where the outing will be held this year. In other years it has been held at Rocky Point and always has proved a most enjoyable day.

The assessors are continuing their hard task of revaluing all of the property in the town and have weeks of work ahead of them yet.

A number of local people were at the Douglas camp meeting Sunday, some of them remaining over Monday.

Danielson gets a new industry through the development of its textile enterprises. The building at the corner of Main and Hutchins streets, which for years was used as a bakery is to be fitted up by New Jersey interests for doing sewing and burling. At the outset the concern will employ about 15 women, it was stated Monday, but it will be gradually expanded to give employment

PUTNAM

Putnam was home Friday Monday for the first time since prohibition hit this corner of Connecticut there was a real Sahara for the thirsty ones at the week's opening. Neither real beer nor wine was to be had and every place that has been dealing in liquors had notices posted that there was nothing doing.

"Just orders" was the only explanation offered by those who were close touch with the business, and it was later added that the orders were those of the Connecticut Retail Liquor Board.

It was stated Monday that federal revenue inspectors have been going places where whiskey and other distilled liquors have been stored away pending the wet period between the prohibition and the enforcement of the eighth amendment to the constitution. Some dealers were advised to seal up their stock and wait until the inspectors let it severely alone until such time as permission may be given to sell it for awhile. The federal men's presence in the town was a surprise to the boys who will tell the world.

Stealing out of the Day Kimball hospital at about 4 o'clock Monday morning, Mrs. Jane Dawson, one of the patients, made her escape, and though sought for throughout the day, no trace of her whereabouts had been discovered up to late in the afternoon.

It is believed that Mrs. Dawson was charged only in her undergarments and her bathrobe when she stole away from the hospital. Failure to locate her in the day gave rise to the belief in police circles here that she may have committed suicide by throwing herself into the river.

Mrs. Dawson was to have undergone a surgical operation Monday. About three weeks ago she was before Justice Bryden in the town of Pomfret to answer to a charge of bigamy, and probable cause was found for holding her for the next term of the Windham county superior court having criminal jurisdiction. She was bound over under bonds of $500, and had been a prisoner at the county jail in Brooklyn until she became ill, and was removed to the hospital to undergo a necessary operation.

It was charged at the hearing before Justice Bryden in Pomfret that Mrs. Dawson has two husbands living, one George Dawson of Jewett City, the other John Parker of the town of Pomfret. It was shown at the hearing that child was born to her by each of these men, but both children died.

It was stated Monday afternoon by one who came into close touch with Mrs. Dawson's case during the period since she was arrested on a bigamy charge, that the woman had been under a tremendous mental strain, and that she became very ill at the jail.

Mrs. Dawson's home is in Mystic. She is about 24 years of age, has light hair and blue eyes and is under medium height. She was employed in a laundry here at the time of her arrest on the bigamy charge. Mrs. Dawson threatened to end her life before the time set for her trial in October, but little heed was paid to this.

Without a dissenting vote, electors who were gathered at a special town meeting here Monday appropriated $10,000 toward the cost of laying permanent pavement in Grove street.

It was expected, it was stated, will be ample to pay at least one-quarter of cost of the proposed improvement, the balance of which will be paid by the state.

Grove street, under the heavy traffic it has had to bear, has been in poor condition for several years, though concrete work has been done upon it. At Monday's meeting there seemed to be a practically unanimous sentiment that the town should improve this thoroughfare, which is one of the most important of Putnam's transportation arteries, if not the most important.

The amount that is made available is sufficient to meet the cost of cement, asphalt or other permanent paving.

The meeting passed a vote of thanks to Senator Archibald Macdonald of this city and district for his stirring efforts to secure the creation of the state highway department in carrying out this important improvement, and also passed a vote of thanks to State Highway Commissioner Bennett, for the interest he has shown in the matter.

Clerk E. M. Warner of the superior court received instructions Monday as to the procedure to be followed in the case of the new candidates for citizenship who will not be required to give the usual 90 days notice nor will they be required to furnish certificates setting forth the time of their arrival in this country, nor pay the $4 fee usually exacted from those who become citizens.

Mrs. Phoebe K. Jacobs, 81, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Pierce, at Putnam Heights.

Miss Ruth Bartlett, after a visit at Bolton, Mass., was guest on Monday of Miss Ada and Elsie Alexander at New Britain, Conn.
